Bishop Edward Daly

Last week, our beloved retired bishop, Edward Daly, returned to God. It has been a time to remember Bishop Daly's faithful service of God and the people of this diocese. Over the days many people shared their experiences of meeting with Bishop Edward and the kindness and compassion he showed, in actions both great and small.

It was my privilege to lead the Funeral Mass and burial rites.

I thank you, the people of this diocese, for your overwhelming response to the death of Bishop Edward, for attending his wake, the liturgies which were celebrated and his funeral.

In prayer, we now entrust Bishop Edward's soul to our Eternal Father, that he may be welcomed into his Heavenly Kingdom.

May he rest in peace.
