THE HOME PLACE.

Saturday 8 October - 7.30pm

Die Kindertotenlieder: by Gustav Mahler, A Dramatic Recital
Performed by mezzo-soprano Sara Fulgoni & the Meccore String Quartet Seamus Heaney’s famous poem ‘Mid-Term Break’ (which commemorates the death of his younger brother, Christopher) provides the inspiration for this opening recital.

Sunday 9 October - 2 – 4.45pm

Learning from TS Eliot: The Play Way

Now HomePlace brings a unique event staged at two different churches in Bellaghy. Over the course of the afternoon, the audience moves from one church to the next to experience all four of Eliot’s ‘quartets’, that make up Opus 132. ‘The Play Way’ will also be read, and the final Beethoven movement, and the last of Eliot’s quartets (‘The Dry Salvages’), will be performed in St Mary’s. It is hoped that people will make their way from St Mary’s to Church of Ireland and return to St Mary’s for final performance
