Guardians of the Flame documentary

The event will be held in the Parochial Hall on Fri 8th Nov at 7:30pm with a showing of the documentary and followed by a Q&A session. The film explores the role that tribal religion has played in fuelling the tragedy of sectarian violence in Northern Ireland. The films tells the redemptive stories of three individuals who have suffered and lost greatly during The Troubles, yet despite this they refuse to succumb to bitterness and revenge and instead show us how forgiveness can conquer hate, how true religion welcomes marginalised, builds bridges and breaks down walls of isolation.

Annual Mass for the Parish Dead. This Mass will be celebrated on Fri 1st November at 7.30pm in St Mary's Church Bellaghy and will be the Mass of the day in the Parish.

There will be the opportunity to light a candle in remembrance of parishioners who have died since last November.

For families whose loved ones have died elsewhere in the past year they too can light a candle in their memory.

A large candle will be lit to acknowledge the names that have been placed in the box at the Altar. Names can be placed in the box on the night.

Candles will be available on the way out for people to take with them, which they might like to light to remember their deceased, at times such as anniversaries, birthdays and prayer especially during November or at other special occasions.
