Synod "Walking together"

This Synod of the Universal Church will include every parish worldwide including Ballyscullion, it takes place over the coming two years and will examine what life is like in the Church at this moment in time.

How do we make decisions? How do we create community?

How welcoming are we? Do we provide opportunities for people to participate and further the mission of the Church to bring the love of Christ into every corner of the world?

We as a parish are part of this process. You are all invited to these meetings to have your say. Your answers to the questions posed will be collated into a diocesan report that will inform the meeting of Bishops from all over the world in Rome in 2023.
