For those considering becoming priests of the Derry diocese, but who are anxious about giving up so many of the things they have and enjoy in order to follow the Lord in this way, we pray that they will take to heart the words of Jesus in this weekend's gospel: "For you it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God."

Preparing for Holy Year 2025—Pilgrims of Hope.

The Saturday evening/Sunday celebration of the Mass is at the heart of the life of the Church and the parish in that it is what the Second Vatican Council calls "the source and the summit of all Christian life." It is the memorial of the Lord's passion, death, and resurrection. It is the highest point of prayer, bringing God's people together around the table of Jesus' body and blood. Prayer and preparation will help us Catholics to have a greater awareness of what's being celebrated, what's happening at every Mass, and to be more fully engaged in living with and through the great gift which the Lord has given to us in His body and blood.

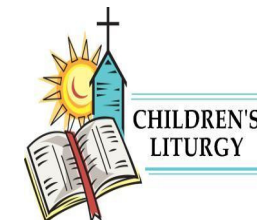

We are currently recruiting Readers and Eucharistic Ministers and are actively inviting parishioners to come along to a meeting on Sunday afternoon, 20 October in Clady Hall, at 2pm. The meeting will consist of some teaching about the history of these ministries, and some practical points about carrying them out at Mass or other Services. The session should last no more than two hours, and will finish with Evening Prayer.

Volunteers needed for Children's Liturgy. The group requires some new volunteers to help out. Usually this is only one mass every 4-5 weeks and group is flexible. No teaching experience required - all help welcome from all age groups. Please contact Parish Office or Fiona Crozier for more details.

Bishop McKeown will celebrate the Vigil Mass on Saturday 12 October, at 7pm, after which he will bless and dedicate the Prayer Room as The Blessed Carlo Acutis Adoration Chapel. There will be an all-night vigil in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, from 8pm - 8am, concluding with Morning Prayer.

We would like to encourage Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on a regular basis, beginning this Friday, 18 October, from 10am—8pm. Anyone who would like to pledge an hour in adoration every Friday, please sign the form in the church porch.
