The Blessing and Commissioning of Readers and Eucharistic Ministers will take place at the Masses on the weekend of 16/17 November.

Our Second Reading reminds us that priests are chosen from among the People of God, to help us, their brothers and sisters, in our weakness and our uncertainty, in our relationship with the Lord. We pray for the men in our parish communities who are being called to serve the Church as priests of this diocese.

Preparing for Holy Year 2025—Pilgrims of Hope.

Make the Sign of the Cross well. When we bless ourselves we are, in ways, summarising the whole of our Christian faith. We recognise that the God we believe in as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We acknowledge the great mystery of the Holy Trinity—the three persons in the one God. We know God as the Father who created the world and everything in it, including ourselves; we profess our faith in Jesus as the God who lived, died, and rose again to save us; and we honour God the Holy Spirit who lives within us and call us to have an intimate relationship with our God, and a holy relationship with our brothers and sisters in Christ. Making the Sign of the Cross with faith, reverence, and devotion is the best way to being our own personal celebration of the Mass. It focuses our attention on who we are in relationship with God and with one another.
