Preparing for Holy Year 2025—Pilgrims of Hope.

Welcoming Jesus in the Eucharist. Jesus makes Himself present to us in Holy Communion. The bread that is broken and shared is the spiritual nourishment we need to strengthen and sustain us in our efforts to live as followers of Jesus Christ in today's world. Our faith tells us that Jesus is really and truly present in the Eucharist, and that He wants to live, not only with us, but within us. He wants to come into our lives as Lord and Saviour. He wants to guide us with the help of the Holy Spirit. If we really believe that Jesus is present and coming into our lives in this way we should approach the moment of receiving Holy Communion silently and reverently. When the priest or Eucharistic Minister holds us the host and says, "The Body of Christ" our response should be an enthusiastic "Amen" - our way of saying, "Yes, Lord, I believe that this is Your body, given to me and for me."
