

Invitation To Mass – Concluding The 33 Days Of Family Prayer: As you may be aware, Bishop McKeown has been leading the diocese in 33 days of Family Prayer towards Consecration to Jesus Christ through Mary, as part of the diocesan programme for the Jubilee year of 2025, ‘Pilgrims of Hope’. The 33 days of Family Prayer concludes on Tuesday, 11 February 2025, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Each evening of the 33 days, Bishop McKeown and priests of the diocese have been broadcasting online a short reflection and prayers of the Rosary. Bishop McKeown now extends an invitation to those who have participated in this journey of prayer to join him in St Eugene’s Cathedral, Derry on Tuesday, 11 February at 7:00pm. The bishop will pray the final prayers of this journey and lead people in making the Prayer of Consecration. This will be followed by the celebration of Mass at 7:30pm. Certificates to mark the Consecration will be available after Mass. If you are unable to attend, Certificates will be available to download at derrydiocese.org/consecration. Details of the Family Prayer programme can be found on the website.

Pilgrims of Hope

Pope Francis encourages us to pray "The Liturgy of the Hours," sometimes called "The Prayer of the Church," a set of Psalms, Scripture (and other) readings, and prayers recited daily by priests and religious. This means that prayer, praise, and thanksgiving are being offered on a 24/7 basis, all around the world "from the rising of the sun to its setting". Many lay people nowadays are joining in the recitation of these prayers online or through a number of apps which are free or relatively inexpensive. In this way we exercise, each one of us, our share in the royal priesthood of all the baptised. It's comforting to know that, in prayer, we're never alone, and that millions, if not billions, of people throughout the world are joining together, or individually, to praise God.
