Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The Family.

In the family, faith is handed on together with life, generation after generation. It is shared like food at the family table and like the love in our hearts. In this way, families become privileged places in which to encounter Jesus, who loves us and desires our good, always.

Jubilee of families, children, grandparents and the elderly.

Last week's Offertory Collection amounted to £1,095.00. Thank you for your generous contribution.

The Retired Priests Collection: £40.00

The Building and Maintenance Collection will be taken up at the Masses this weekend . Please use the envelope provided.

We pray that our seminarians and those discerning a vocation to the diocesan priesthood will, in the words of St Paul to Timothy, "...fan into a flame the gift" [of faith] and "...never be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord..." as they rely on the power of God to keep them faithful to their calling.

As we enter into October, the month of the Rosary we're invited to pray the Rosary for Peace; every day, if possible, and especially on 22 October, the Feast of Pope St John Paul II.

We could do this individually, with family, or with friends. Maybe the Rosary isn't a devotion you practise, but you might still offer a decade, or even just one Hail Mary (or more) for Peace.
Alternatively, you might fast for the much needed intention of Peace in our time.

Feast Days of the Week:

Mon 6: St Bruno, priest.
Tues 7: Our Lady of the Rosary.
Thurs 9: St John Henry Newman, priest.
Sat 11: St John XXIII, pope

Portglenone Prayer

Group: The Prayer Group
meets every Tuesday evening in the Monastery at 7pm.
Everyone welcome.
